PRATT ANNOUNCES VETERANS JOB FAIR FOR FRIDAY, MARCH 4

Fifth Job Fair Includes 28 Employers and Agencies

Milwaukee, WI – Interim County Executive Marvin Pratt announced today that the fifth Veteran’s Job Fair will be held Friday, March 4 in Room 3435 of the Zablocki VA Medical Center, 5000 W. National Ave. The event will be held from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. and is open only to veterans.

The event is a joint collaboration of the Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development Office of Veterans Services, the Zablocki VA Medical Center and the Milwaukee County Veterans Service Office.

“This is an important event for our veterans,” Pratt said. “This job fair will provide them with employment opportunities they may not have been aware of. It’s important that employers consider veterans for jobs, and we are pleased that so many of them are participating in this event.”

Pratt is a retired military officer and veteran. He is former chairman of the Wisconsin Board of Veterans Affairs. Employer participants in the event are:
